Re: William Gunnar Trull v. Salisbury Bank and Trust Company, et al.
Civil Action No.: 7:18-cv-08386-NSR

Dear Judge Román:

This firm represents Defendants Salisbury Bank and Trust Company and Salisbury Bancorp, Inc. (together, "Defendants") in connection with the above matter. We write to object to Plaintiff's January 29, 2020 request for leave to amend his Opposition briefing [ECF #48] in order to include a response to Defendants' Statements of Undisputed Material Facts Pursuant to Rule 56.1. Plaintiff has offered no explanation for his failure to provide a compliant response with his original briefing and should not be allowed an opportunity to amend now.

However, should the Court allow Plaintiff to amend his Opposition briefing, Defendants request additional briefing to address whatever new arguments Plaintiff may raise in his amended filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer I. Fischer
